RADIO HIGHLIGHTS

11/23/88

"L.A.'s Morning Show With Gary Owens and Al Lohman," featuring spontaneous humor, conversation, frequent traffic reports and news updates, is presented from 5:30 to 9 a.m. on KFI-AM (640).

John Swaney hosts "The Breakfast Edition," a program of news and talk, from 5:30 to 9 a.m. on KGIL-AM (1260).

"Food With Jackie Olden" features advice on recipes, best buys and cooking gadgets, at 9:10 a.m. on KGIL-AM (1260).

"Tales of the Old West," a series of vignettes of Western Americana with adventure, comedy and romance and hosted by Bob Shannon, begins at 10:30 a.m. on KCSN-AM (88.5).

Jazz musician Jay McShann demonstrates the Kansas City style on "Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz," at 1:30 p.m. on KCRW-FM (89.9).

The "verbal combat" of talk-show host Tom Leykis, who fills his four-hour show with outspoken opinions and discussion with guests and callers, begins at 3 p.m. on KFI-AM (640).

David Scheim, author of "Contract on America," discusses the assassination of President Kennedy with host Carole Hemingway beginning at 4 p.m. on KGIL-AM (1260).

"Echoes of Greece," hosted by Mimika Goettling, looks at the life and culture of Los Angeles' large Greek community, at 7 p.m. on KPCC-FM (89.0).

"The Final Countdown," two hours of rock music, begins at midnight on KXLU-FM (88.9).